

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

6 Anne, c. 14. s. 8. (I.)

60. ' And whereas by Petition of Right in the Third Year of King Charles the First it is enacted and declared, that the People of the Land are not by the Laws to be burdened with the sojourning of Soldiers against their Wills; and by a Clause in an Act of the Parliament of England, made in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for granting a Supply to His Majesty of Two hundred and six thousand four hundred and sixty-two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Threepence, for paying and disbanded the Forces, it is declared and enacted, that no Officer, Civil or Military, nor other Person whosoever, should thenceforth presume to place, quarter, or billet any Soldier upon any Subject or Inhabitant of this Realm, of any Degree, Quality, or Profession whatsoever, without his Consent, and that it shall be lawful for any Subject or Inhabitant to refuse to quarter any Soldier, notwithstanding any Warrant or Billeting whatsoever: And whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, Chapter Fourteen, Section Eight, intituled An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers, and providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on their March, it was enacted, that no Officer, Soldier, or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, nor any Yeoman of the Guard or Battle-axes, nor any Officer commanding the said Yeomen, nor any Servant of any such Officer, should at any Time thereafter have received or be allowed any Quarters in any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time or Times as he or they should be on their March as in the same Act is before mentioned, or during such Time as he or they should be and remain in some Seaport Town or other Place in the Neighbourhood of a Seaport Town in order to be transported, or during such Time as there should be any Commotion in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army, or any considerable Part thereof, should be commanded to march from One Part of Ireland to another: But forasmuch as there is and may be Occasion for the marching and quartering of Regiments, Corps, Troops, and Companies in several Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the said several Provisions of the said recited Acts shall be suspended and cease to be of any Force or Effect during the Continuance of this Act.

Certain Requirements of 6 Anne, c. 14. (I.), as to billeting in Ireland, not now necessary.

61. ' And whereas by the Eleventh Section of the said Act of the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, Chapter Fourteen, it is provided and enacted, that no Civil Magistrate or Constable should be obliged to find Quarters for or give Billets to more or other Soldiers than those only whose true Christian and Surnames should be delivered to him in Writing under the Hand of the Officer desiring Quarters or Billets for such Soldiers at the Time such Quarters or Billets should be desired, and that all such Names should be written together and delivered in One Piece of Paper, signed as aforesaid, and that the Christian and Surnames of every Soldier to be quartered or billeted, together with the Name of the Person on whom he or they should be billeted or quartered, should be given in Writing by the Constable or Civil Officer billeting or quartering such Soldier, and be contained in the Billet given by such Civil Officer: And whereas it has been found inconvenient and difficult to comply with all the Requirements of the said Enactment: It shall not be necessary, so long as this Act shall continue in force, for any Officer, upon upon the Occasion of his requiring Quarters or Billets for any Soldiers in Ireland, to deliver to the Constable or other Person whose Duty it shall be to find or give the same any List of the Names of the Soldiers to be so quartered or billeted; and it shall not be necessary for the Constable or other such Person as aforesaid to set forth in any Billet the Name of any Soldier to be billeted or quartered, but only the Number of the Soldiers, or the Number of the Soldiers and Horses respectively, as the Case may require, to be billeted or quartered on the Person named in the Billet, and to whom the same shall be addressed.

62. It shall be lawful for all Constables of Parishes and Places, and other Persons specified in this Act, in Great Britain and Ireland, and they are hereby required, to billet the Officers and Soldiers in Her Majesty's Service, and Out-pensioners when assembled as a local Force by competent Authority, and Persons receiving Pay in Her Majesty's Army, and the Horses belonging to Her Majesty's Cavalry, and also all Staff and Field Officers Horses, and all Bât and Baggage Horses belonging to any of Her Majesty's other Forces, when on actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by Her Majesty's Regulations, in Victualling Houses and other Houses specified in this Act (taking care in Ireland not to billet less than Two Men in One House, except only in case of billeting Cavalry as specially provided); and they shall be received by the Occupiers of the Houses in which they are so billeted, and be furnished by such Victuallers with proper Accommodation in such Houses, or if any Victualler shall not have sufficient Accommodation in the House upon which a Soldier is billeted, then in some good and sufficient Quarters to be provided by such Victualler in the immediate Neighbourhood, and in Great Britain shall also be furnished with Diet and Small Beer, and in Great Britain and Ireland with Stables, Oats, Hay, and Straw for such Horses as aforesaid, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates herein-after provided; and at no Time when Troops are on a March shall any of them, whether Infantry or Cavalry, be billeted above One Mile from the Place mentioned in the Route, Care being always taken that Billets be made out for the less distant Houses, in which suitable Accommodation can be found, before making out Billets for the more distant; and in all Places where Cavalry shall be billeted in pursuance of this Act, each Man and his Horse shall be billeted in One and the same House, except in case of Necessity; and, except in case of Necessity, One Man at least shall be billeted where there shall be One or Two Horses, and Two Men at least where there shall be Four Horses, and so in proportion for a greater Number; and in no Case shall a Man and his Horse be billeted at a greater Distance from each other than One hundred Yards; and the Constables are hereby required to billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March, in the Manner required by this Act, upon the Occupiers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in the Route, and whether they be in the same or in a different County, in like Manner in every respect as if such Houses were all locally situate within such Place; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorize any Constable to billet Soldiers out of the County to which such Constable belongs when the Constable of the adjoining County shall be present and shall undertake to billet the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County; and no more Billets shall at any Time be ordered than there are effective Soldiers and Horses present to be billeted; all which Billets, when made out by such Constables, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Commanding Officer present; and if any Person shall find himself aggrieved by having an undue Proportion of Soldiers billeted in his House, and shall prefer his Complaint, if against a Constable or other Person not being a Justice, to One or more Justices, and if against a Justice then to Two or more Justices within whose Jurisdiction such Soldiers are billeted, such Justices respectively shall have Power to order such of the Soldiers to be removed, and to be billeted upon other Persons, as they shall see Cause; and when any of Her Majesty's Cavalry or any Horses as aforesaid shall be billeted upon the Occupiers of Houses in which Officers or Soldiers may be quartered by virtue of this Act who shall have no Stables, then and in such Case, upon the written Requisition of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Corps, Troop, or Detachment, the Constable is hereby required to billet the Men and their Horses, or Horses only, upon some other Person or Persons who have Stables and who are by this Act liable to have Officers and Soldiers billeted upon them; and upon Complaint being made by the Person or Persons

C A P. VIII.

An Act for the Regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on shore. [18th April 1861.]

WHEREAS it is judged necessary for the Safety of the United Kingdom, and the Defence of the Possessions of this Realm, that a Body of Royal Marine Forces should be employed in Her Majesty's Fleet and Naval Service, under the Direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid: And whereas the said Forces may frequently be quartered or be on shore, or sent to do Duty or be on board Transport Ships or Merchant Ships or Vessels, or Ships or Vessels of Her Majesty, or other Ships or Vessels, or they may be under other Circumstances in which they will not be subject to the Laws relating to the Government of Her Majesty's Forces by Sea: And whereas no Man can be fore-judged of Life or Limb, or subjected in Time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment within this Realm, by Martial Law, or in any other Manner than by the Judgment of his Peers, and according to the known and established Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless it being requisite for the retaining of such Forces in their Duty that an exact Discipline be observed, and that Marines who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert Her Majesty's Service, or be guilty of any other Crime or Offence in breach of or to the Prejudice of good Order and Discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Forms of the Law will allow: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Lord High Admiral, &c. may make Articles for the Punishment of Mutiny, Desertion, &c.

1. It shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, from Time to Time to make, ordain, alter, and establish Rules and Articles of War, under the Hand of the said Lord High Admiral, or under the Hands of any Two or more of the said Commissioners, for the better Government of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, and for the Punishment of Mutiny, Desertion, Immorality, Breach of Discipline, Misbehaviour, Neglect of Duty, and any other Offence or Misconduct of which they shall be guilty, in any Place on shore or afloat in or out of Her Majesty's Dominions, or at any Time when or under any Circumstances in which they shall not be amenable to the Laws for the Government of Her Majesty's Ships, Vessels, and Forces by Sea, and for regulating the Proceedings of Courts-martial, which Rules and Articles shall be judicially taken notice of by all Judges and in all Courts whatsoever; and Copies of the same shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the same shall have been made, be transmitted by the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being (certified under his Hand) to the Judges of Her Majesty's Superior Courts at Westminster, Dublin, and Edinburgh respectively, and also to the Governours of Her Majesty's Dominions abroad; provided that no Person within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or within the British Isles shall by such Articles of War be subject to suffer any Punishment extending to Life or Limb, or to be kept in Penal Servitude, except for Crimes which are by this Act expressly made liable to such Punishment as aforesaid, or shall be subject, with reference to any Crimes made punishable by this Act, to be punished in any Manner which may be inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act.

Offences against former Mutiny Acts and Articles of War.

2. All Crimes and Offences committed against any former Act made for the Regulation of the Royal Marine Forces while on shore, or against any of the Rules, Regulations, or Articles of War made and established by virtue of the same, may, during the Continuance of this Act, be tried, inquired of, and punished in like Manner as if they had been committed against this Act; and every Warrant for holding any Court-martial under any former Act shall remain in full Force notwithstanding the Expiration of such Act; and all Proceedings of any Court-martial upon any Trial begun under the Authority of such former Act shall not be discontinued by the Expiration of the same: Provided always, that no Person shall be liable to be tried and punished for any Offence against any of the said Acts or Articles of War which shall appear to have been committed more than Three Years before the Date of the Commission or Warrant for such Trial, unless the Person accused, by reason of his having absented himself, or of some other manifest Impediment, shall not have been amenable to Justice within that Period, in which Case such Person shall be liable to be tried at any Time not exceeding Two Years after the Impediment shall have ceased; and provided also, that if any Officer or Marine in any Place beyond the Seas shall commit any of the Offences punishable by Court-martial under this Act, and shall escape and come or be brought into this Realm before he be tried for the same, he shall, when apprehended, be tried for the same as if such Offence had been committed within this Realm.

3. This Act shall extend to the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, as to the Provisions herein contained for enlisting of Recruits, whether Minors or of full Age, and swearing and attesting such Recruits, and for mustering and paying, and to the Provisions for Trial and Punishment of Officers and Marines who shall be charged with Mutiny and Desertion or any other of the Offences which are by this Act declared to be punishable by the Sentence of a Court-martial, and also to the Provisions which relate to the Punishment of Persons who shall conceal Deserters, or shall knowingly buy, exchange, or otherwise receive any Arms, Medals for Good Conduct or for distinguished or other Service, Clothes, Military Furniture, or Regimental Necessaries from any Marine or Deserter, or who shall cause the Colour of any such Clothes to be changed; and also to the Provisions for exempting Marines from being taken out of Her Majesty's Service for not supporting or for leaving chargeable to any Parish any Wife or Child or Children, or on account of any Breach of Contract to serve or work for any Employer, or on account of any Debts under Thirty Pounds in the said Islands.

Provisions of this Act to extend to Jersey, &c.

4. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to exempt any Officer or Marine from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law when accused of Felony or Misdemeanor, or of any Misdemeanor other than the Misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an Order of Justices for the Payment of Money; and any Commanding Officer who shall neglect or refuse, when due Application shall be made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over to the Civil Magistrate any Officer or Marine, or who shall wilfully obstruct, neglect, or refuse to assist any Peace Officer in apprehending any such Offender, shall, upon Conviction thereof in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, be deemed to be thereupon cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment in Her Majesty's Service; and a Certificate of such Conviction shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

The ordinary Course of Law not to be interfered with.

5. No Person subject to this Act having been acquitted or convicted of any Crime or Offence by the Civil Magistrate or by the Verdict of a Jury shall be liable to be again tried for the same Crime or Offence by a Court-martial, or to be punished for the same otherwise than by cashiering in the Case of a Commissioned Officer, or in the Case of a Warrant Officer by Reduction to an inferior Class, or to the Rank of a Private Marine by Order of the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or in the Case of a Non-commissioned Officer, by Reduction to the Ranks, by Order of the Commandant of the Division to which such Non-commissioned Officer may belong; and whenever any Officer or Marine shall have been tried before a Court of ordinary Criminal Jurisdiction, the Clerk of the Court or other Officer having the Custody of the Records of such Court, or the Deputy of such Clerk, shall, if required by the Officer commanding the Division to which such Officer or Marine belongs, transmit to him a Certificate containing the Substance and Effect only, omitting the formal Part, of the Indictment, Conviction, and Entry of Judgment thereon or Acquittal of such Officer or Marine, and shall be allowed for such Certificate a Fee of Three Shillings.

No Person tried by Civil Power to be punished by Court-martial for same Offence except by cashiering, &c.

6. The Governors shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the establishment of this scheme, subject to the approval of the said Board, make suitable regulations for the conduct and management of all matters connected with the administration of the Charity and its property, and may from time to time, with the like approval, vary such regulations; and all such regulations shall be binding upon all persons interested; provided that no regulation be so made which is at variance with any of the provisions of this scheme.

7. 8. The establishment of the hospital shall in future consist of a master and twenty brethren and sisters.

The master shall be a single person of good character, not less than 50 years old at the time of his appointment, and a native of Guildford, or resident there for a period of at least 20 years.

The brethren and sisters shall be respectively poor single persons of good character, not less than 60 years old at the time of appointment, natives of the ancient borough of Guildford, or resident there for a period of at least 20 years; provided that if and so often as there shall not be any duly qualified candidate from the said ancient borough, candidates from the municipal borough of Guildford, being otherwise duly qualified as directed by this scheme, shall be eligible for appointment. No person shall be eligible for any of the said appointments who is a drunkard or lunatic, or has any infectious or contagious disease, or who shall be in receipt of relief from any parochial or other rate for the relief of the poor, or who shall have received such relief at any time within the three next preceding years; and in the selection of candidates those persons are to be preferred who, being otherwise properly qualified, shall have borne office or been traders in the said borough of Guildford.

The brethren and sisters shall in general be in the proportion of twelve brethren to eight sisters, with power, nevertheless, for the Governors to relax this rule under special circumstances as they may find expedient.

9. Upon the occurrence of any vacancy in the office of master, a meeting of the Governors shall be held, at which some proper person shall be appointed by the Governors to fill the vacancy; provided that no appointment of a master shall be made until the expiration of six weeks after the vacancy in the office has occurred, and that every such appointment be forthwith notified by the Governors to the Archbishop of Canterbury for his approval, without which approval the appointment shall not be complete or valid.

10. All applications for admission as inmates shall be made in writing to the master, and shall be entered by the master in a register specifying the date, and the name, age, residence, description, and qualifications of every applicant. The master shall also keep a register of all all inmates admitted to the hospital, in which register shall be entered the date of every admission, and the particulars of the qualifications of each person admitted, and the date and mode of occurrence of every vacancy.

11. All appointments of inmates shall be made by the Governors at some meeting of their body, and the persons to be so appointed shall be selected by the Governors from the register of applicants, and (except in such special or urgent cases as may be considered by the Governors to require the relaxation of this rule) no appointment of any inmate shall be made until after the expiration of one calendar month at the least from the date of his or her application for admission. In making the appointments preference shall in all cases be given by the Governors, as far as possible, to the most deserving candidates, qualified as aforesaid, regard being had to the age, personal character, and the circumstances and necessities of each candidate.

12. The master shall receive a yearly salary of 70*l.*, to be paid to him by the Governors half-yearly out of the income of the Charity, and an allowance of 5*l.* annually for coals, and shall occupy such rooms within the hospital as may from time to time be assigned by the Governors for his use. The Governors, however, with the consent in writing of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and with the sanction of the Charity Commissioners, may from time to time vary the amount of the stipend and allowance to be paid to the master.

13. The Governors shall pay to each of the brethren and sisters respectively such weekly or other stipends or allowances, not exceeding the rate of 8*s.* per week, as the income and resources of the Charity will from time to time admit; provided that if the available income of the Charity at any time will not admit of the payment of a stipend at the rate of 5*s.* per week to each brother and sister the Governors shall be at liberty, with the consent of the Charity Commissioners, to suspend the appointment of the full number of inmates, so that such inmate may receive a stipend amounting to that weekly rate at the least.

The Governors shall also be at liberty to make reasonable allowances of coal or other necessaries to each of the brethren and sisters, to be provided out of the income of the Charity, in addition to their pecuniary stipends, whenever such income shall be sufficient for the purpose.

14. The salary of the master and the weekly stipend of each brother and sister hereafter to be elected shall commence from the day of his or her admission to the hospital; but the Governors shall be at liberty, if they so think fit, to set apart any proportion, not exceeding one half of such salary or stipend, for a period not exceeding three months, towards defraying the expense of cleansing, papering, or painting the apartment of such master, brother, or sister.

15. One room in the hospital shall be assigned by the Governors to each brother and sister for his or her exclusive use, and every such room with its fixtures shall be maintained and kept in repair out of the income of the Charity.

16. The Governors shall from time to time inspect the apartments of the master, brethren, and sisters respectively, and whenever they shall consider it necessary shall direct the same to be cleansed and whitewashed, and the windows to be mended, at the expense of the occupier, and they may defray the cost by deducting the same from his or her stipend, at their discretion.

17. The Governors shall have the power of removing the master and any of the brethren or sisters, in case they shall cease to be objects of the Charity, or for immorality, insubordination, or other misconduct; provided that the removal of the master shall not be valid without the approval in writing of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

18. The master may at any time, with the concurrence of one Governor or more, suspend any brother or sister, for misconduct, from the receipt of any allowance or benefit from the Charity until the case can be reported by the master to the Governors, and decided upon by them.

19. One of the brethren shall be appointed by the Governors to be the vice-master, and during his tenure of such appointment shall receive a salary at the rate of 4*l.* per annum, to be paid to him quarterly, in addition to his stipend as a brother.

The Governors shall be at liberty at any time to remove such vice-master, at their discretion, and to appoint another in his place.

20. The oaths hitherto administered to the master, brethren, and sisters respectively shall in future be discontinued. The sisters shall also be relieved from the duty of attending the sick; and the stipend of 13*s.* 4*d.* allowed as a remuneration for such service, and all allowances and gifts to the inmates, other than those directed or provided by this scheme, shall respectively cease.

All existing regulations and usages now in force with respect to the administration of the Charity, which are in any way at variance with this scheme or any of the provisions or objects thereof, shall also respectively cease and be discontinued.

21. Subject to the provisions of this scheme, the Governors may from time to time prescribe such reasonable rules and regulations as they may think expedient for the government and conduct of the hospital, and the master, inmates, and officers thereof, and all such rules and regulations shall be observed by the persons affected thereby.

22. If any doubt or question shall arise amongst the Governors or any of them as to the proper construction or application of any of the provisions of this scheme, or the management of the Charity, application may be made by the Governors to the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales, for their opinion and advice thereon, which opinion and advice, when given, shall be binding on the Governors and on all other persons affected thereby; and if any of the provisions hereof relating to the detailed management of the Charity, and not prescribing or defining the principal objects thereof, shall be found to be unsuitable or practically inconvenient, the same may be modified or altered or annulled by the Governors, with the sanction of the said Commissioners.

23. This scheme shall be printed, and a copy given to every person who shall become a member of the governing body of the Charity, and to every master and inmate of the hospital.

C A P. XLIV.

An Act to remove Doubts respecting the Authority of the Legislature of Queensland, and to annex certain Territories to the Colony of South Australia, and for other Purposes. [22d July 1861.]

5 & 6 Vict.
c. 76.

18 & 19 Vict.
c. 54., Schedule 1. s. 46.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land, it was enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Letters Patent to be from Time to Time issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to define, as to Her Majesty should seem fit, the Limits of the Colony of New South Wales, and to erect into a separate Colony or Colonies any Territories which then were or were reputed to be or thereafter might be comprised within the said Colony of New South Wales; provided always, that no Part of the Territories lying Southward of the Twenty-sixth Degree of South Latitude in the said Colony should by any such Letters Patent be detached from the said Colony: And whereas by a Bill passed by the Legislative Council of New South Wales, in the Seventeenth Year of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to confer a Constitution upon New South Wales, and to grant a Civil List to Her Majesty, which said Act was, with certain Amendments, assented to by Her Majesty in Council under Authority of an Act of Parliament passed in the Session holden in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Year of Her said Majesty, intituled An Act to enable Her Majesty to assent to a Bill as amended of the Legislature of New South Wales to confer a Constitution upon New South Wales, and to grant a Civil List to Her Majesty, it was provided that nothing in the said Bill contained should be deemed to prevent Her Majesty from altering the Boundary of New South Wales on the North in such Manner as to Her Majesty might seem fit, nor from detaching from the said Colony that Portion of the same which lies between the Western Boundary of South Australia and the One hundred and twenty-ninth Degree of East Longitude, reckoning from the Meridian of Greenwich: And whereas by the last-recited Act of Parliament Provision was made respecting the Exercise by Her Majesty of the Power given Her by the said Bill of altering the Northern Boundary of New South Wales and it was declared that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Letters Patent to be from Time to Time issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to erect into a separate Colony or Colonies any Territories which might be separated from New South Wales by such Alteration as aforesaid of the Northern Boundary thereof, and in and by such Letters Patent or by Order in Council to make Provision for the Government of any such Colony, and for the Establishment of a Legislature therein in manner as nearly resembling the Form of Government and Legislature which should be at such Time established in New South Wales as the Circumstances of such Colony would allow, and that full Power should be given in and by such Letters Patent or Order in Council to the Legislature of the said Colony to make further Provision in that Behalf: And whereas in virtue of the Powers herein-before set forth Her Majesty did, by certain Letters Patent bearing Date the Sixth Day of June in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, separate certain Territories therein mentioned from the Colony of New South Wales, and did erect the said Territories into a separate Colony under the Name of Queensland, and did also, by a certain Order in Council, also bearing Date the said Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, make Provision for the Government of the said Colony of Queensland, and for the Establishment of a Legislature therein, but the Form of Government and Legislature so established did not in all respects resemble the Form of Government and Legislature at that Time established in New South Wales: And whereas Doubts are entertained whether the Powers intended to be conferred upon the said Government and Legislature by the said Order in Council, and the Acts done by them, may not be invalid by reason of such Want of Resemblance as aforesaid: And whereas Doubts are also entertained whether it is competent to Her Majesty by Letters Patent to annex to any existing Colony any Part of New South Wales which may be detached therefrom, or to detach from New South Wales that Portion thereof which lies between the Western Boundary of South Australia and the One hundred and twenty-ninth Degree of

‘ of East Longitude : And whereas it is expedient to set at rest all such Doubts as aforesaid, and also to detach from New South Wales the last-mentioned Portion thereof, and to annex the same to South Australia :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

1. So much of the Colony of New South Wales, being to the South of the Twenty-sixth Degree of South Latitude, as lies between the Western Boundary of South Australia and the One hundred and twenty-ninth Degree of East Longitude, shall be and the same is hereby detached from the Colony of New South Wales and annexed to the Colony of South Australia, and shall for all Purposes whatever be deemed to be Part of the said last-mentioned Colony from the Day on which this Act of Parliament shall be proclaimed therein.

Certain Territories detached from New South Wales and annexed to South Australia.

2. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty by such Letters Patent as aforesaid to annex to any Colony which is now or may hereafter be established on the Continent of Australia any Territories which, in exercise of the Powers herein-before mentioned, might have been erected into a separate Colony : Provided always, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in such Letters Patent to reserve such Powers of revoking or altering the same as to Her Majesty shall seem fit, or to declare the Period during which such Letters Patent shall remain in force ; and also on the Revocation or other Determination of such Letters Patent again to exercise, in respect of the Territories referred to therein or any Part thereof, all such Powers and Authority as might have been exercised if the said Letters Patent had never been made.

Power to annex to existing Colonies Territories now Part of New South Wales.

3. All the Provisions made in the afore-mentioned Letters Patent and Order in Council of the said Sixth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, for establishing the Colony of Queensland, and for the Government of the said Colony, and for the Establishment of a Legislature therein, shall be and be deemed to have been valid and effectual for all Purposes whatever, and all Acts and Proceedings of the said Government and Legislature shall be and be deemed to have been from the Date of the said Order in Council of the same Force and Effect as if the last-mentioned Order in Council had been in all respects valid and free from Doubt.

All Provisions of Letters Patent of 6th June 1859 and Proceedings thereunder of Government, &c. of Queensland to be valid.

4. ‘ And whereas in the event of any Territories being hereafter separated from New South Wales, and erected into a separate Colony, it may not be expedient that the Form of the Government and Legislature to be established in the said Colony should depend upon the Form of Government and Legislature which may, at the Time of such Separation, be established in New South Wales :’ Be it enacted as follows :

Sect. 7. of 18 & 19 Vict. c. 54. repealed.

So much of the secondly herein recited Act of Parliament as requires that the Government and Legislature of any Colony so erected as aforesaid shall, as nearly as the Circumstances of the said Colony shall allow, resemble the Form of Government and Legislature which shall be at such Time established in New South Wales, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

5. ‘ Whereas the Boundaries of certain of Her Majesty’s Colonies on the Continent of Australia may be found to have been imperfectly or inconveniently defined, and it may be expedient from Time to Time to determine or alter such Boundaries :’ Be it therefore further enacted as follows :

Provision for determining Boundaries.

It shall be lawful from Time to Time for the Governors of any contiguous Colonies on the said Continent, with the Advice of their respective Executive Councils, by any Instrument under their joint Hands and Seals, to determine or alter the common Boundary of such Colonies ; and the Boundary described in any such Instrument shall be deemed to be, within the Limits there laid down, the true Boundary of said Colonies, so soon as Her Majesty’s Approval of such Instrument shall have been proclaimed in either of such Colonies by the Governor thereof.

6. In the event of any Territory being hereafter separated from any Australian Colony, and either erected into a separate Colony or annexed to any other Colony, if the Governor of the Colony to which such Territory belonged before Separation, or the Governor of the Colony to which it shall belong or which it may constitute after Separation, shall represent to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that a Question has arisen between the Governments of the Two Colonies as to the Proportions in which the Public Debt of the Colony from which such Territory has been separated should be borne by the Two Colonies respectively after Separation, or as to the Division of the Public Monies in the Treasury of such first-mentioned Colony at the Time of Separation, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, through One of Her Principal Secretaries of State, to require the Governors of the Two Colonies, with the Advice of their respective Executive Councils, each to appoint a Commissioner, and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to appoint a Third Commissioner, not being a Resident in or employed in the Public Service of either Colony and to fix the Time and Place of the First Meeting of the Commissioners, and such Commissioners shall determine the Proportion in which such Monies or Debt shall be divided between the Two Colonies; and the Award of such Commissioners, or of any Two of them, when confirmed by Her Majesty in Council, shall be final and conclusive against both Colonies: Provided always, that nothing herein contained, and no Award as aforesaid, shall in any way prejudice or affect the Security of any Debentures which may have been issued before the Separation of any Territory by the Government of the Colony from which such Territory may be separated, or the absolute Right and Claim of the Holders thereof to demand and receive Payment of the Amounts thereby respectively purporting to be secured, as well out of the Revenues of the Colony from which such Territory has been separated as out of the Revenues of the Colony to which such Territory shall belong or which it may constitute.

An Act for regulating the Use of Locomotives on Turnpike and other Roads, and the Tolls to be levied on such Locomotives and on the Waggon and Carriages drawn or propelled by the same. [1st August 1861.]

‘ WHEREAS the Use of Locomotives is likely to become common on Turnpike and other Roads: And whereas the General Turnpike and Highway Acts and many of the Local Turnpike Acts do not contain any Provisions for regulating the Use of Locomotives on the Roads to which they respectively apply, nor do they authorize the levying of Tolls upon or in respect of any Locomotive using the Roads, or upon or in respect of any Waggon or Carriage drawn by Locomotives: And whereas under and by virtue of certain Local Turnpike Acts Tolls may be levied upon Locomotives and other Engines drawing or propelling Waggon or Carriages, or upon the Waggon or Carriages so drawn or propelled, which are or may be prohibitory of the Use of Locomotives on the Roads to which the said Acts respectively apply: And whereas the Weighing Clauses in the General Turnpike Acts have not been framed in anticipation of Traffic by Locomotives, and are in many respects ill adapted to the profitable carrying of Goods, or to the levying of just and adequate Tolls upon Waggon or Carriages drawn by Locomotives: And whereas it is desirable that the Use of Locomotives on Turnpike and other Roads should be regulated by uniform general Provisions, and that Tolls should be levied upon such Locomotives and the Waggon or Carriages drawn by such Locomotives upon Turnpike Roads:’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76. ' WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in manner herein-after mentioned the Act passed in the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, intituled An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, and herein-after referred to as the "Principal Act:" Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Short Title. 1. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as "The Municipal Corporations Act Amendment Act, 1861."

Construction of Section 57 of 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76. 2. ' Whereas by the Fifty-seventh Section of the Principal Act it is provided that the Mayor for the Time being of every Borough shall be a Justice of the Peace of and for such Borough, and shall continue to be such Justice of the Peace during the next succeeding Year after he has ceased to be Mayor, unless disqualified as therein-before mentioned ; and that such Mayor shall, during the Time of his Mayoralty, have Precedence in all Places within the Borough : ' It is hereby enacted, That the Mayor of every Borough shall, during the Time of his Mayoralty, have Precedence over all Justices of the Peace acting in and for such Borough, and be entitled to take the Chair at all Meetings of Justices held within the Borough at which he may be present by virtue of his Office of Mayor, subject to these Provisoes ; firstly, that the Mayor of a Borough shall not by virtue of this Section have any Precedence over the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the County, Riding, or Division of a County in which any such Borough is situate unless when acting in relation to the Business of such Borough, or over any Stipendiary Magistrate engaged in administering Justice ; and secondly, that by virtue of this Section the Mayor of Cambridge shall not have any Precedence over the Vice-Chancellor of the University of Cambridge, and the Mayor of Oxford shall not have any Precedence over the Vice-Chancellor of the University of Oxford.

Amendment of Section 98 of 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76. 3. ' Whereas by the Ninety-eighth Section of the Principal Act it is provided, that every Person assigned by Her Majesty's Commission to act as Justice in and for a Borough shall reside within the Borough for which he shall be so assigned, or within Seven Miles of the Borough, or of some Part thereof, during such Time as he shall act as a Justice of the Peace in and for such Borough ; and by the Ninth Section of the Principal Act it is provided, that every Burgess shall be an Inhabitant Householder within the Borough, or within Seven Miles thereof : ' It is hereby enacted, That every such Justice shall be deemed to reside within such Borough if he occupies any House, Shop, Warehouse, or other Premises within the same.

Boroughs having a separate Commission of the Peace to be deemed Towns Corporate for the Purposes of the Alehouse Licensing Act. 4. ' Whereas by the Ninety-eighth Section of the Principal Act it is provided, that Her Majesty's Commission may be issued to certain Persons to act as Justices of the Peace in and for each of the several Boroughs therein mentioned : And whereas Doubts have arisen whether Boroughs having separate Commissions of the Peace but not having separate Courts of Quarter Sessions are "Towns Corporate" within the Meaning of the Act Ninth of George the Fourth, Session Two, Chapter Sixty-one, intituled An Act to regulate the granting of Licences to Keepers of Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses in England, so as to give the Justices of such Boroughs Control over the granting or withdrawing Licences, and it is desirable that such Doubts should be removed : ' It is hereby declared, That in the Construction of the last-mentioned Act the Words "Town Corporate," and the Words "County or Place," and the Words "Division or Place," include every Borough in England having a separate Commission of the Peace, although it may not have a separate Court of Quarter Sessions ; and that the Words "High Constable," where used in the same Act, include any Constable of any such Borough to whom the Justices of the same Borough may direct their Precept or Precepts under the same Act ; and that all Licences hitherto hitherto granted, and all Transfers of Licences hitherto made in pursuance of the same Act, or of the Act of the Fifth and Sixth Victoria, Chapter Forty-four, or any other Act, by the Justices of any such Borough, are hereby declared to be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes.

5. 'Whereas by the One hundred and second Section of the Principal Act, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for the Justices of any Borough to appoint or continue as such Clerk to the Justices any Alderman or Councillor of such Borough, or Clerk of the Peace for such Borough, or Partner of such Clerk of the Peace, or any Clerk or Person in the Employ of such Clerk of the Peace; and that it shall not be lawful for the said Clerk to the Justices, by himself or his Partner, to be directly or indirectly interested or employed in the Prosecution of any Offender committed for Trial by the Justices of whom he shall be such Clerk as aforesaid, or any of them, at any Court of Gaol Delivery, or General or Quarter Sessions; and that any Person being an Alderman or Councillor, or Clerk of the Peace of any Borough, or the Partner or Clerk, or in the Employ of such Clerk of the Peace, who shall act as Clerk to the Justices of such Borough, or shall otherwise offend in the Premises, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds as therein mentioned: And whereas the said Provisions have been found to be insufficient for preventing the Mischiefs thereby intended to be prevented: It is hereby enacted, That the said Provisions of the One hundred and second Section of the Principal Act shall be repealed; and from and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for the Justices of any Borough to appoint or continue as their Clerk any Alderman or Councillor of such Borough, or the Clerk of the Peace of such Borough, or of the County in which such Borough is situate, or the Partner of any such Clerk of the Peace; and it shall not be lawful for the Clerk to the Justices of any Borough, by himself or his Partner, or otherwise, to be directly or indirectly employed or interested in the Prosecution of any Offender committed for Trial by the Justices of such Borough or any of them at any Court of Gaol Delivery or General or Quarter Sessions; and any Person who shall in anywise offend in the Premises shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, one Moiety thereof to the Treasurer of such Borough, to be paid over to the Credit and Account of the Borough Fund, and the other Moiety thereof, with Costs of Suit, to any Person who may sue for the same in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster: Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Justices of any Borough reappointing as their Clerk any Clerk of the Peace or Partner of such Clerk of the Peace of their Borough, or of the County in which such Borough is situate, who at the Time of the passing of this Act shall be, or who shall not at the Time of such Reappointment have ceased to be, the Clerk of such Justices.

Repeal of Sect. 112 of 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76. and new Provisions enacted in lieu thereof.

6. 'Whereas by the Fourth Section of an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-six, intituled An Act to amend an Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-three, relating to Weights and Measures, certain Powers of appointing Inspectors of Weights and Measures are conferred on the Town Councils of all Municipal Boroughs in England and Wales incorporated under the Provisions of the Principal Act to which a separate Court of Quarter Sessions has been granted: And whereas it is expedient to extend such Provisions to the Town Councils of all Municipal Boroughs in England and Wales having a separate Commission of the Peace, although they may not have a separate Court of Quarter Sessions: It is hereby enacted, That all the Provisions of the said Fourth Section shall extend to Boroughs having a separate Commission of the Peace in the same Manner as if such Boroughs were therein included under the Description of "Boroughs to which a separate Court of Quarter Sessions has been granted."

Provisions of 22 & 23 Vict. c. 56. as to Appointment of Inspectors of Weights and Measures extended to Boroughs having a separate Commission of the Peace.

7. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect "The Manchester Division Stipendiary Act, 1854," or any Provision therein contained.

Not to affect 17 & 18 Vict. c. 20.

8. This Act shall be construed as One with the said Principal Act.

C A P. CXVI.

An Act for the Appropriation in favour of the Military Knights and the Churches of Windsor of Two of the Canonries suspended in the Chapel of Windsor, and for making certain Provisions respecting the Naval Knights of Windsor. [6th August 1861.]

WHEREAS a College or Society consisting of a Warden, Canons, Priests, Alms Knights, and other Officers was founded by King Edward the Third within the Chapel of Windsor, and in connexion with the Order of the Garter, under the Title of the Warden and College of the Free Chapel of Saint George within the Castle of Windsor, and Provision was made for the Maintenance of all the Members of the said College out of the Goods and Possessions with which the said Chapel was endowed: And whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty-second Year of King Edward the Fourth, after reciting that the Possessions of the said College were insufficient to sustain the other Charges and also to bear the Charges of the same Knights (in consideration whereof His said Majesty King Edward the Fourth had for the said Knights otherwise provided), the said Knights were excluded from the said College, and the said Warden and Canons, who were thereby incorporated by the Title of the "Dean and Canons," were discharged from the Charge of maintaining the said Knights: And whereas no permanent Provision was made for the said Knights by King Edward the Fourth, but subsequently thereto, and in the First Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, Trusts were created of certain Lands then vested in the said Dean and Canons by virtue of a Conveyance thereof previously made, and by the Indenture creating such Trusts, after estimating the annual Value of such Lands at Six hundred and sixty-one Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence, and stating it to have been the Intention of the Crown to whom the said Lands belonged to make by the First Conveyance a special Foundation and Continuance of the said Knights, it was declared that Four hundred and thirty Pounds, Part of the Income of the said Lands, should be appropriated, amongst other things, to the Payment of Twelvepence per Day for the Maintenance of the said Knights, and to providing them with certain Liveries, to the Intent that they might make a decent Appearance before their Sovereign, while the Dean and Canons were authorized to apply to their own Use the Residue of the said Income, amounting to Two hundred and thirty-one Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence: And whereas the annual Income of the said Land has increased from the said Sum of Six hundred and Sixty-one Pounds Six Shillings and Eightpence to about Fourteen thousand Pounds, but no Increase has been made in the Sums allowed to the said Knights: And whereas in pursuance of divers Acts of Parliament Eight Canonries in the said Collegiate Chapel of Saint George are suspended, and One Fourteenth Part of the whole Monies of the said Chapel are paid in respect of each suspended Canonry to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and carried over by them to their Common Fund: And whereas it is expedient that there should be made out of the Revenues of the suspended Canonries such Augmentation of the Salaries of the said Knights as would appear to be just, having regard to the Difference that has occurred in the Value of Money and in the annual Income of the said Lands since the Trusts were created, apportioning such Income in manner herein-before mentioned: And whereas the Town of Windsor is very populous, and insufficient Means are provided for the Cure of Souls therein; and it is expedient that out of other Part of the Revenues of the said suspended Canonries an Addition should be made to the Endowments of the Churches in Windsor: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

1. The Dean and Canons of Windsor shall henceforth retain all such Share of divisible Revenues as would if this Act had not passed have been payable to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in respect of the Canonry seventhly suspended under the Acts herein-before in that Behalf mentioned, and shall apply the same for the Benefit of the Military Knights on the Upper or Royal Foundation of the Castle at Windsor, in such Manner as Her Majesty may by Warrant under Her Sign Manual direct.

Appropriation of Profits of Seventh Canonry to Military Knights.

2. The said Dean and Canons shall likewise retain all such Share of divisible Revenues as would if this Act had not passed have been payable to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in respect of the Canonry eighthly suspended under the Act herein-before in that Behalf mentioned, and shall apply the same as follows; that is to say, shall pay Three Fifths thereof to the Vicar for the Time being of the Royal Borough of Windsor, and the remaining Two Fifths to the Perpetual Curate of the District Church of the Holy Trinity in Windsor, in augmentation of their respective Benefices.

Appropriation of Profits of Eighth Canonry to Incumbent of Churches.

3. The Mode of ascertaining Amount of Payments to be retained.

3. The Amount of the Share of divisible Revenues to be retained by the said Dean and Canons for the Purposes of this Act in respect of each of the said Canonries seventhly and eighthly suspended shall equal the Amount paid by them to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners in respect of each of the Six other suspended Canonries, and the Acceptance of such last-mentioned Amount by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall be conclusively binding on the Parties beneficially interested under this Act in the Proceeds of the said seventhly and eighthly suspended Canonries.

Lieutenants
to Rank of Retired Commander shall continue Poor Knights.

4. 'Whereas it is now necessary that the Poor Knights of Windsor, of the Foundation of Samuel Travers, Esquire, should be superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of English Men-of-War: And whereas it is expedient that Lieutenants being or who may be such Knights, and who may succeed to the Rank of Retired Commander, shall nevertheless remain and continue such Knights:' It is therefore hereby enacted, That Lieutenants being or who may at any Time or Times hereafter become such Knights, and who may succeed to the Rank of Retired Commander, shall notwithstanding be continued and remain such Poor Knights as if they had not succeeded to such Rank; and upon any such Lieutenants being nominated such Knights, and complying with the Regulations otherwise in force, they shall be such Knights for all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and the said Poor Knights shall henceforth be styled Naval Knights.
